This book belongs to

Melissa Mouse loves cars. Michael Mouse, her twin brother prefers trucks.

"Cars are cool," Melissa said.

"Trucks rock," said Michael.

"Cars are better!" "No, trucks are!" "Cars!" "Trucks!"

Uncle Marvin Mouse heard them arguing.

"There are lots of other vehicles," he said.

"Like what?" asked Michael.

"I'll show you," he said as he twitched his whiskers.

"Buses take you to school. But they can also take you on trips across the country." Uncle Harold said.

"I like buses," said Melissa. "I like the song, too... The Wheels on the bus go round and round..." "Oh, no! She's singing again," groaned Michael holding his ears.

"Vans are great for carrying lots of things," said Uncle Marvin. "Like ladders, paint cans, soccer equipment and tools."

"Motorcycles are fast!" said Uncle Marvin. "You must always wear a helmet when you ride a motorcycle."
"Vroom," said Michael.

"Let's not forget about tractors. Your Aunt Mildred uses one everyday on her farm."

"Your Auntie Marilyn has a convertible," said Uncle Marvin.

"That's where the top of the car goes up and down."
"It's fun to ride in her car," said Melissa.
"My ears blow back in the wind."

"Uncle Milton is a fireman. He rides around on a hook and ladder truck and puts out fires with the hose."

"See," said Michael, "that's a truck!" "But there are lots of different types of trucks – garbage trucks, dump trucks, tractor-trailer trucks, tanker trucks, pick-up trucks, big-rigs and more." said Uncle Marvin.

"There are lots of cars, too," he said to Melissa.
"Sedans, coupes, sports cars, station wagons, limousines." "And race cars, too," said Melissa.

"One thing is certain," Uncle Marvin Mouse said,
"you two surely do like your cars and trucks!"

"We do," the twins said. "But we're really glad you showed us lots of other types of cars and trucks."
